Mid Fiscal Year Financial Summary and Position December 31, 2025

Through the continued generosity of you, our parishioners and visitors, the Cathedral's financial position is strong at the halfway point of the 2026 fiscal year and improving in a meaningful way. Over the past few months, we have seen a significant and encouraging shift in both our financial performance and our internal operations.

Revenue has exceeded expectations, currently running at 135% of projections, $1,551,302. While expenses are slightly above budget (103%, or $1,020,464), overall spending remains lower than at this same point last year, a sign of greater discipline and oversight.

Looking ahead, we anticipate total annual revenue to exceed $2.2 million, up from $1,943,500, with expenses remaining under $2.1 million, up from $1,862,496. This represents a notable strengthening of the Cathedral's financial foundation.

At the same time, important improvements have been made behind the scenes. The Cathedral's Finance Office is now fully staffed and has implemented clearer, more consistent processes for expenses, reimbursements, and approvals. We are also reviewing our practices in light of diocesan guidelines.

Together, these developments reflect not only stability but real progress, ensuring that the Cathedral is well-positioned to support its mission in the years ahead.

Respectfully,
Fr. Christopher Gray
Pastor and Rector

Accountant

Good Friday Choral Meditation

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 2026 | 3:00 PM

Every year on Good Friday the Choristers of the Cathedral Choir offer a performance of the Stabat Mater by Giovanni Battista Pergolesi as a choral meditation upon the suffering and death of Jesus Christ.

The inspired and trenchant composition, set for two treble voices and strings, consists of twelve short works, half of which are sung by the entire choir, while the remaining are performed as solos and duets.

The Stabat Mater was composed by Pergolesi at the end of his short life at a Franciscan monastery in Pozzuoli. It was written as a replacement for the Scarlatti setting in use at the church of Maria dei Sette Dolori in Naples.

The event will be held on Good Friday, April 3, at 3 PM in the Cathedral. No tickets are required and all are invited to attend. Learn more by scanning the QR code below.
