EASTER MESSAGE

FROM FR. GRAY

Alleluia! He is truly risen!

This Easter, in thanksgiving for the Risen Lord, I want to take a moment to say how grateful and thankful I am for each of you.

Whether you're a longtime parishioner or friend of the Cathedral . . .

New to the Catholic faith or returning to the Church . . .

Just visiting or in need . . .

Thank you for being here. Thank you for helping fulfill the Cathedral's mission—as the Mother Church of the Diocese of Salt Lake City—to bring the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, and the faith, hope, and love that flow from Him, to all of Utah and beyond.

As we enter this Easter season, let us walk with grace and with a readiness to forgive, recalling how freely our Lord meets us with mercy. Let us assume the best in one another and remain united in our shared purpose: to serve well in each moment. And I invite you, simply and profoundly, to be the Cathedral.

In our community, faithfulness matters more than perfection. We must strive for both—but love is our law.

Now the dawn of Easter has broken upon us. Let us carry this Paschal fire forward.

Servite Domino in laetitia—"Serve the Lord with gladness" (Psalm 100:2). This is our joyful summons: to serve the One who has conquered sin and death, and who renews in us the gifts of joy, hope, and peace.

See Christ in every face. Remain united as His Body. Live as radiant witnesses. In His Resurrection we are reborn—baptized into divine life.

*If you are suffering, know this: the Risen Shepherd is near—and so is your Cathedral family. Please feel free to schedule a time to visit with me; I would be grateful to know you better and to serve you as your pastor.

Thank you again for being here this Easter.

May Christ, the conqueror of death, fill your homes, your hearts, and your families with His peace—a peace that disarms all fear.

A most joyful and blessed Easter to you.

MADELEINE FESTIVAL PERFORMANCES NEXT MONTH AT THE CATHEDRAL

The Madeleine Festival of the Arts and Humanities seeks to revive the historic role of Cathedrals in the cultural life of their communities by inspiring artistic expression and making the arts available to all. All the performances are free and open to the public, unless otherwise specified.

SINGING I HURRY ON... THE LIFE AND POETRY OF SR. MADELEVA WOLFF

with Sister M. Veronique Wiedower (CSC)

April 19 at 7:30 PM

The title for this presentation is taken from a signature poem of Sister M. Madeleva Wolff, CSC, called "Travel Song." Her life was one of physical and spiritual journeys: to many places around the world and around the inner landscapes of the heart. Her relationships with Beauty and Truth were often sources of discovery, growth and creativity. As we hear of her life, its simple practices and deep beliefs that kept her "singing" through life, perhaps we will find some resonances in our own lives that impel us to "hurry on" with joy and wonder.

UTAH CHAMBER ARTISTS COLLAGE CONCERT

In collaboration with the Utah Chamber Artists

April 27 and 28 at 7:30 PM

The Madeleine Festival of the Arts and Humanities presents the Utah Chamber Artists in concert. Established in 1991 by Barlow Bradford and James Lee Sorenson, the Utah Chamber Artists are a unique ensemble of fifty singers and forty orchestral members who create a balance and sonority rarely found in a combined choir and orchestra. In this innovative experience, the musicians are joined by specially selected guest soloists who perform continuously without applause, placed in various spots throughout the cathedral, and enhanced by special lighting.

Please consider a donation - your generous gift helps to ensure the future of this unique Festival and furthers the music program of the Cathedral of the Madeleine. Scan the QR code to donate today.
