Mode VIII

1100 (Choristers) Tantum ergo

Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924)

Translation:

Let us therefore, bowing low, venerate so great a sacrament; and let the old law give way to the new rite; let faith afford assistance to the deficiency of the senses. To the begetter and the begotten let there be praise and jubilation, salvation and honor, and power and blessing; and to the one proceeding from both let there be equal praise.

1100 (Choristers) Judica me Deus

Mode IV

Translation:

Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly nation; from wicked and deceitful men deliver me, for you are my God and my strength. Send forth your light and your truth; these have led me and brought me to your holy mountain and to your dwelling place.

Processional Hymn

Out of the Depths

Aus tiefer not

Out of the depths I cry to you; O Fa-ther, hear me call-ling.
All things you send are full of grace; You crown our lives with fa-vor.
My soul is wait-ing for the Lord As one who longs for morn-ing;

In-cline your ear to my di-stress In spite of my re-bel-ling.
All our good works are done in vain With-out our Lord and Sav-ior.
No watch-er waits with great-er hope Than I for his re-turn-ing.

Do not re-gard my sin-ful deeds.
We praise the God who gives us faith
I hope as Is-rael in the Lord;

Send me the grace my spi-rit needs;
And saves us from the grip of death;
He sends re-demp-tion through his Word.

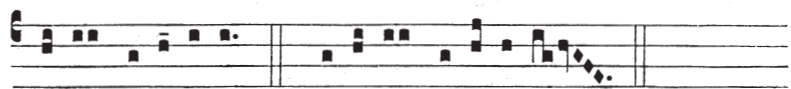

With-out it I am noth-ing.
Our lives are in his keep-ing.
We praise him for his mer-cy.

Translation:

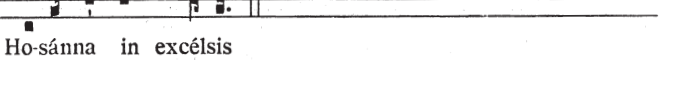

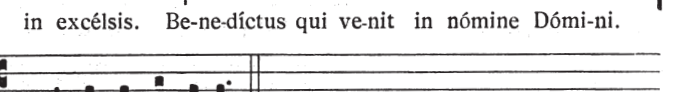

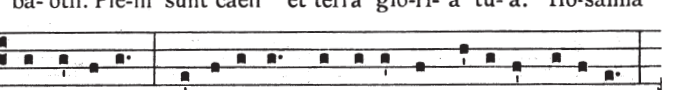

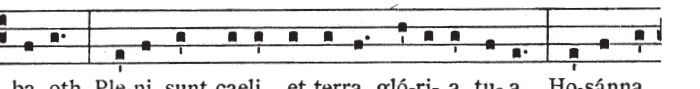

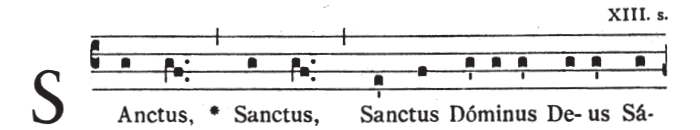

Word of God, one with the Most High, in whom alone we have our hope. Everlasting light of heaven and earth, we break the silence of the peaceful night; Saviour divine, cast thine eyes upon us! Pour on us the fire of thy mighty grace, that all hell may flee at the sound of thy voice: Banish the slumber of a weary soul, that brings forgetfulness of thy laws! O Christ, look with favour upon thy faithful people now gathered here to praise thee; receive their hymns offered to thy endless glory.
